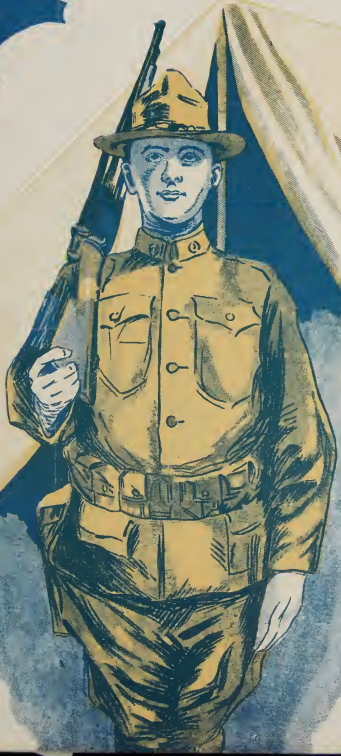
DEDICATED TO 104th REGT U.S. INFANTRY.

THE KHAKI BOYS OF U.S.A.



WORDS BY
ELLA M. SMITH
MUCIC BY
HOWARD I. SMITH

PUBLISHED BY
HOWARD I. SMITH
374 MAIN STREET
SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

THE KHAKI BOYS OF U. S. A.

Words by ELLA M. SMITH

Music by HOWARD I. SMITH

You have heard of the Poi-lus of sun - ny France, of the Tom-mies of staid Britain's Land You have
They have sol - diers and sail-ors in ev' - ry land all as brave and as true as can be, But they heard how they fought mid the shell and shot For the cause of the free they stand. But nev - er can frown on the boys in brown In the air on the land or sea. To our soon you will hear of the boys in brown who are wait - ing to do their mite; When they coun - try and flag and the ones we love we will pledge our al - le - giance true And we'll sail o'er the sea from the land of the free To the thick - est of the fight.
fight with our might and we'll win for the right And the old red, white and blue.

Copyright, 1917, by Howard I. Smith

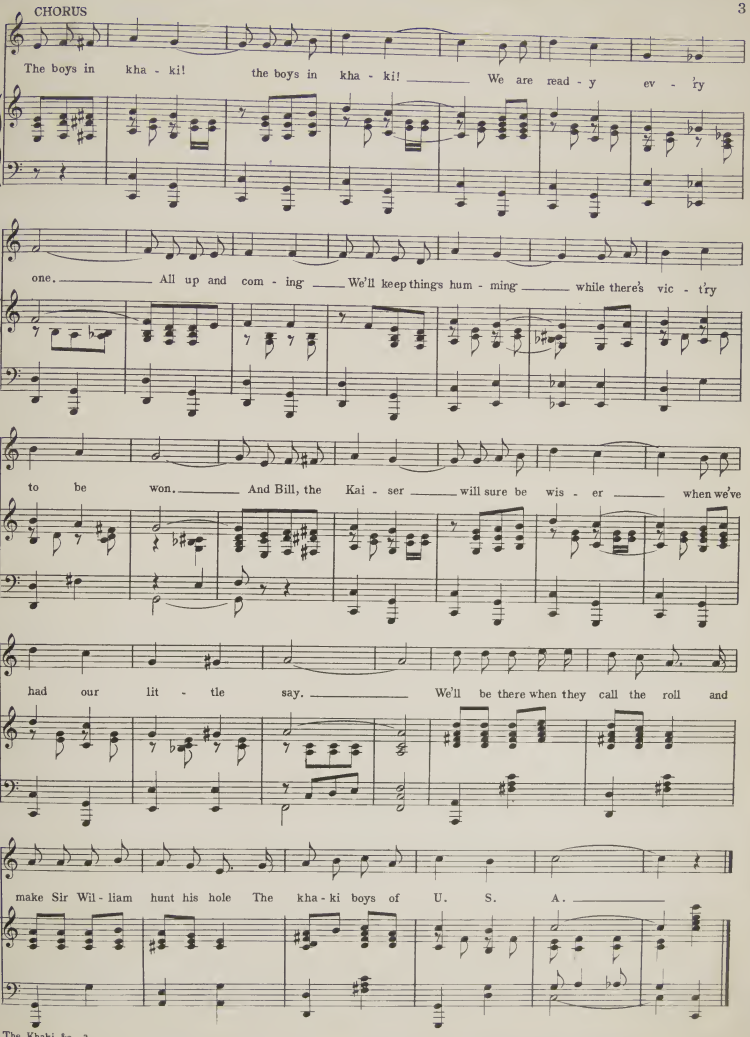
Mechanical rights reserved

THE KHAKI BOYS OF U. S. A.

The "swingiest" march song of the season.

Less than 25 copies	.07½
25 - less than 50	.07
50-less than 100	.06½
100 copies	.06

Howard I. Smith
374 Main Street, Springfield, Mass.



CHORUS
The boys in kha - ki! the boys in kha - ki! We are read - y ev - 'ry one. All up and com - ing We'll keep things hum - ming while there's vic - 'try to be won. And Bill, the Kai - ser will sure be wis - er when we've had our lit - tle say. We'll be there when they call the roll and make Sir Wil - liam hunt his hole The kha - ki boys of U. S. A.